

MEDIA COVERAGE

Business Spectator

31 March 2009

Coppermoly confirms copper continuity at Simuku

Coppermoly Ltd on March 30 said continuity of copper mineralisation at surface has been demonstrated between the Misili and Horseshoe prospects at Simuku, on the island of New Britain in Papua New Guinea.

The area is 400m by 400m including an intersection of 177m grading 0.54% copper equivalent.

